29 None.

14 MANAGEMENT OF THE COUNCIL'S LAND & PROPERTY30 a Nature Reserve

Cllr Budd said that he and Cllr Hassell had done some strimming. A resident had complained about the grass cutting. Cllr Budd had replied that professional reports had been obtained that the area should be managed to encourage wild life. The resident had been lent copies of the reports and understood although he did not necessarily agree. Two quotations had been obtained to create a path, one of £8,600 and the other for £4,100, to differing specifications. It was agreed Cllr Ballard would write a specification so that comparative quotes could be sought. 3 quotations would be needed and would be brought to the next meeting. Cllr Mrs Heyburn proposed a vote of thanks to Cllrs Budd and Hassell for the work they had done, which had helped to increase the wildlife.
